PRESIDENT'S CORNER

I haven't communicated much to the membership through the Rapper, so I want to take a moment to summarize the past year in BCAR and thank you for a very worthwhile and enlightening experience. I didn't fully appreciate the commitment of time and money that the people on this Board have to give in order to serve this membership.

With that said, this Board is still dealing with the effects of the past "misappropriation of funds", which have been extremely challenging. This one issue, with all the practical and legal considerations, has consumed and is still consuming a large part of the Board's time, money and efforts. It actually forced us to evaluate our accounting and brought to light some issues that needed updating. We've switched to QuickBooks for a more consistent, professional accounting system. The good news is we're well on our way to solving those problems and preventing negative events from happening in the future. We've had significant time and efforts contributed by Michelle Branham, Linda Stablow, Shirley Lyden and Karen Fuller to help resolve this issues.

We've made numerous changes in our Policies and Procedures and By-Laws that make the organization more accountable, responsive and better organized. For example, we now require reports from those representatives attending PAR meetings in Harrisburg and we've made it less cumbersome for newer members to get involved and run for positions on the Board.

Our Affiliate Committee, with the efforts of Ellen Caputo and Denise Doyle, ran informative events throughout the year, as well as an entertaining "Night at the Races". Affiliates, such as American General, PA Land Title and A.K. Nahas, continue to be exceptionally generous with their donations. We can't thank the Affiliates enough for their contribution to BCAR.

At times we've had some chaotic periods. You have to expect that when you're making changes and moving forward. We've had some passionate debates, but that's a good thing. It shows that our Board is fully involved.

This Board can be proud of many successes. I had three priorities coming into this year – Education opportunities for our membership, increased Community involvement and more visible Public Relations.

PRESIDENT'S CORNER CON'T.

Education – Lisa Hough and her committee were very successful in their efforts to bring well attended education classes to our area. I hope we can continue these efforts and they will grow even stronger in the next few years - possibly offering ABR, CRS, CRB and Broker's courses locally. This effort not only helps by bringing classes to a more convenient location for our members, it also raises the level of knowledge for our members, and helps subsidize other Board activities.

Community Involvement – Bev Pietrandrea and her committee were successful in promoting our Food Drive benefiting local families. We've joined with Penn State to become a sponsor of the Brodhead Rd. intersection flowers by the Mall, with a sign panel dedicated to BCAR. And our current and ongoing fundraising effort with electronics collection, to name a few.

Public Relations – While we haven't had the time to fully energize this effort, some of you have noticed that the Beaver County Times has been providing, FREE OF CHARGE, 2-4 pages of ads promoting Realtor's on a monthly basis, and James Media has included a variety of ads in the Homes magazine, for which we're very grateful. Thank you BC Times and James Media for your support!

I should also make mention of our 2013 Incoming President's selfless contributions. Not only did his actions allow last year's Auction to proceed, he also provided music entertainment to our Steak Gate event, at no charge! Thanks again Rudy.

And of course, we had a very successful event Chaired by Vic Smith with the Annual Charity Auction! They do a wonderful job, year in and year out with thousands going to our local charities.

Lastly, I'd like to welcome the incoming 2012 Officers and wish them good luck!

Keith DeVries, 2011 President

PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS TRAINING

Have you ever wondered what Professional Standards Training is? Well, the REALTOR® community has a code of ethics that they follow. If you feel that a violation of the code of ethics has been made then a complaint can be filed. By attending the Professional Standards Training, permits you to be apart of this process. You are eligible to be on the Grievance or Professional Standards committees. We are always looking for individuals to get involved.

The 2012 Professional Standards Training is a Webinar for those new to these committees. The sessions are being offered on February 2, 2012 at 1:30pm to 4:00pm and February 8, 2012 at 10:00am to 12:30pm. The webinar will cover the Code of Ethics, Summary of changes to the Code of Ethics for 2012, Grievance exercise for both arbitration and ethics.

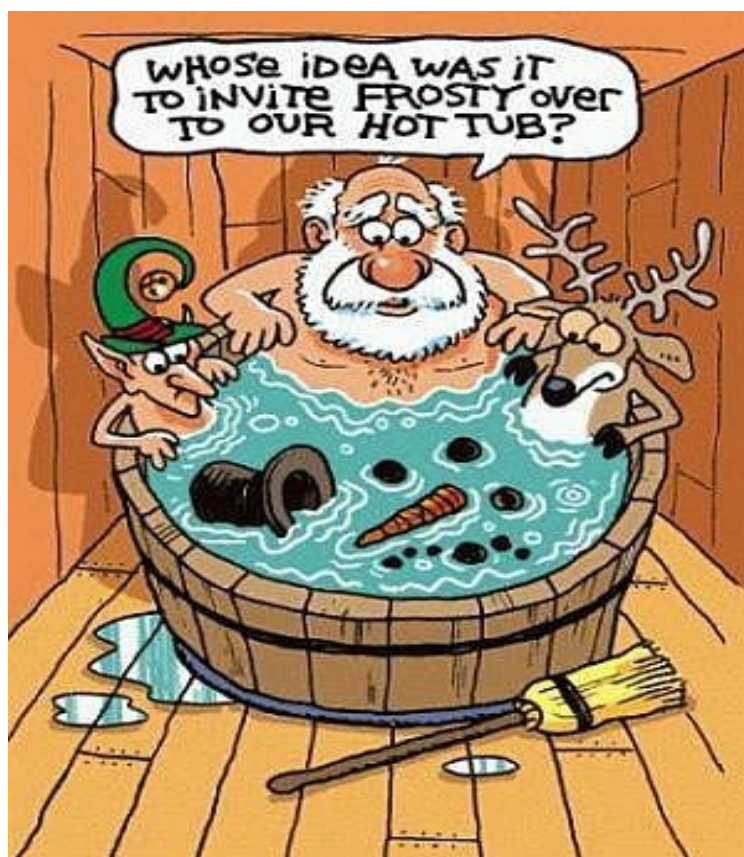

Professional Standards Training for existing members will be held on April 4, 2012 at the Westmoreland County Community College.

If this is something you would like to get involved with or need more information, please call the association office at 724-774-4126.

Continuing Education Classes

The association put on the Marcellus Shale and the Code of Ethics CE classes through RAMP two times in October. They both were very successful. The association office has had a few calls requesting those classes again in the first part of next year. Are you interested in attending these classes? If so please call the association and add your name to the list.

Are you interested in receiving a designation? What you like the class to be local? Please call the association office and let them know what designation you are interested in.
